Eligibility Criteria

For all Awards

- (a) Women currently enrolled in a higher degree at a university in Western Australia
- (b) Awards are not open to candidates enrolled in honours or diploma courses.
- (c) Applicants must have had their research proposal approved formally at the university in which they are enrolled.
- (d) Applicants must not be in full-time employment.
- (e) Applicants may only ever hold one award bearing the name Graduate Women (WA) however designated.

For scholarships

- (f) An applicant must be an Australian citizen or permanent resident within the meaning of the Australian Citizenship Act 2007. (Documentary evidence may be required.)
- (g) Scholarships may not be used for any purpose overseas except for study that is a component of an approved Australian university course conducted in an educational institution overseas.

For bursaries

- (h) Women holding a degree from any University in Western Australia and enrolled for a higher degree at any recognised university are also eligible.
- (i) All women of any nationality are eligible.

General Conditions

- Awards are to fund a specific academic purpose that will assist a woman to enhance the quality of the higher degree for which she is enrolled.
- Awards will not be made for the purchase of computers or for professional editing.
- Graduate Women (WA) and the Trustees reserve the right not to make an award or to award less than the applicant has requested.
- The decision of Graduate Women (WA) and the Trustees is final and no further correspondence will be entered into.
- Awards are made on condition that a full acquittal with original receipts for all expenses will be provided on or before 30 June 2019.
- Unexpended funds must be returned to Graduate Women (WA) Education Trust.

Selection Criteria

Awards will be made on the grounds of:

- demonstrated academic achievement
- the purpose for which the money is to be used, in particular, the extent to which the award will assist the applicant to enhance the quality of the higher degree for which she is enrolled.

Applicants are advised to apply only after completing at least one year's fulltime equivalent of their candidature to be competitive. While conference funding is a valid purpose for the awards, applicants are advised to ensure that they establish a detailed case showing how this will enhance their degree.

Application Procedure

- Applications, including supporting documents, are to be submitted as Word or PDF documents, and lodged by email to: office@graduatewomenwa.org.au.
- The application form will be available as a Word document from the Graduate Women (WA) website from mid May.
- One set of application documents will be considered for all relevant awards.
- The completed application form must be accompanied by
 - (a) A list of the PDF and/or Word documents that make up the application.
 - (b) Scans of the applicant's certified academic record
 - (c) Proof of enrolment for a higher degree.
- Applicants must request two referees to email a referee report form, available from the GWWA website, to the Awards Convener at the Graduate Women (WA) office, office@graduatewomenwa.org.au before the closing date. One of the referees must be the applicant's principal current supervisor.
- Applicants are responsible for checking that references have been sent and received by the closing date. Referees' reports will be verified.

For enquiries about awards and eligibility, contact Dr Patricia Todd at trish.todd@uwa.edu.au.

Applications will be acknowledged by email. Should you not receive an acknowledgement within a week of your application you are responsible for contacting office@graduatewomenwa.org.au.
