

GWWA GALA DAY
Saturday, 8TH OCTOBER 2022

SAVE THE DATE!

Jenny Jones
President, Graduate Women WA

invites you to our Association's Gala Day: 'Australia as a World Citizen'.

Join us on Saturday 8th October at St Catherine's College Nedlands. We will showcase our Scholarships and the research of GWWA scholars. There will also be panel of speakers promoting a national and international context to our theme.

- Retired Chief Justice of the Family Court of Australia, the Hon. Diana Bryant AO QC
- Dean International (Faculty Health Sciences), Deputy Chair of the Curtin Academic Board, Professor of International Health (School of Population Health) Professor Jaya Dantas PhD
- Senior Lecturer Law UWA, expert in human rights mechanisms and modern slavery and inaugural winner of the GWWA Leah Jane Cohen Scholarship, Dr Fiona McGaughey.

Next year GWWA will be 100 years. Beginning with our AGM in 2022, the committee plans to both look back at past achievements and look forward to continuing the work of GWWA in the context of the world of this century.

Time: 8.30am to 4pm
Venue: St Catherine's College, Nedlands
Cost: $25 and student rate $15

Enjoy breakfast, lunch, morning tea and concluding drinks and door prizes.

Enquiries: Hilary Silbert, Event Manager

0409 375 148 hilarysilbert@westnet.com.au